

Dee Valley CAMRA Social Events update

Saturday 3rd August in Llandudno

As promised in the last Branch Minutes, here's the itinerary for "The North Wales CAMRA Summer Coastal Outing 2024":

It's our annual inter-branch summer social!

1. Kings Head. We'll meet here at 1pm. If it's nice we can sit outside and watch the trams go by. Beers are Greene King Abbot and 2 guest beers.
 2. Snowdon. Short walk downhill and we'll find 3 regular beers: Bass, Taylors Landlord and a house beer by Coach House supplemented by 3 guest beers.
 3. Palladium. Another short walk downhill to Wetherspoons. Up to 3 guest beers alongside the usual Greene King Abbot, Ruddles Best and Sharps Doom Bar.
 4. Cottage Loaf. Next door in the Loaf we'll find Conwy Welsh Pride, Taylors Landlord and 2 guest beers.
 5. Tapps. The micro pub has Conwy Welsh Pride and 4 changing beers. CAMRA discount available here.
 6. Albert. Across the road you'll find Conwy Clogwyn Gold, Taylors Landlord and 2 guest beers. CAMRA discount available here.
- From here it is a short walk to the railway station or bus stops.

For those wanting to venture a bit further out, continue to -

7. Wild Horse Taproom. If you like your craft keg beer then here you can drink Llandudno's local beer. Not too far from the station.
8. Links Hotel. If you like John Willie Lees then this is the place for you. Lees Bitter and Manchester Pale Ale on offer here.
9. Cask & Apple. Open from 2pm on a Saturday, Vale of Clwyd's latest micro pub is run by the former landlord of the Penrhyn Arms. 4 changing beers on offer here and, if you like your cider then this is the branch's Cider Pub of the Year offering up to 6 ciders and perries.

Thanks to Ian Saunders (VoC Branch) for the route.

If you would like any further information, please email me (address below) and I'll try to help.

Saturday 20th July in Conwy.

If you can't wait until 3rd August, the same Vale of Clwyd branch have planned to visit some hostelries in Conwy too.

If you'd like to tag along to that one, meet in the Albion Ale House, Upper Gate Street, Conwy LL32 8RF around 1pm.

Cheers!
